

AP BY AUHNA is a brand for bespoke products tailor made to deliver world class quality at accessible prices to Indian realty projects.

Backed by 3 decades of rich manufacturing expertise gained from working with leading global Bath and Hardware brands, we strive to create products that bring with them real value and deliver a desirable standard of life to our customers.

Each product which carries our name must go through several levels of validation and value addition before it is sent out into the market.

All products are manufactured in-house, in ISO certified facilities, under the supervision and leadership of our trained and experienced production staff. We have infrastructure to fulfill large orders to ensure timely deliveries.

Our products comply with CE and ADA standards and go through rigorous tests and inspections at every stage of production.

The product range under AP BY AUHNA is continuously evolving to suit the dynamic needs of our customers. We leverage our infrastructure and expertise over a wide scope of industrial processes to make quality products across several applications.
